Power innovation by unifying content and data discovery and strengthening copyright-compliant collaboration

Biotech and life science companies must accelerate research and drive innovation to compete effectively, but when content that is essential for research is siloed, it hinders discoverability and slows the pace of innovation. Knowledge workers need to discover relevant information across a spectrum of sources without having to do the same search over and over again.

RightFind Navigate unifies global life science patents, critical public data sources, and high-value scientific literature via seamless RightFind Enterprise integration, all within a scalable open integration ecosystem. This powerful combined solution allows organizations to centralize content discovery and access, enabling knowledge workers to find the right content at the right time, while strengthening copyright-compliant collaboration to drive innovation.
